SPECIMEN EVERGREENS

Evergreens of proper size herein are real specimen plants, frequently transplanted with room for development. They are grown in a fertile, clay-loam soil and can be lifted with solid, medium-size balls. Due to a changeable, exacting climate, the winters of alternate zero and thawing temperatures, most Evergreens hardy in this section will survive without ill effect the more rigorous winter weather of the northern states.

Inspection is invited.

CUPRESSUS arizonicaBlue Arizona Cypress

These are grafted plants, the scions taken from the only plant out of about one thousand seedlings that were planted nine years ago, that proved to be absolutely hardy here in our nursery. Fortunately this hardy plant was far superior to any of the others in form and color. One year grafts stood unprotected in our field rows at five degrees below zero last winter.
